

The use of cell phones is ridiculous on aircrafts. I travel often and enjoy the time to relax, read or do some business writing. With the aircrafts as tight as they are I couldn't think of anything worse than adults or kids yapping on a phone with our heads only 16" apart. This is a social issue more than a safety issue. Please do not allow this.